The pond is home to lots of creatures,
And each one has some special features.

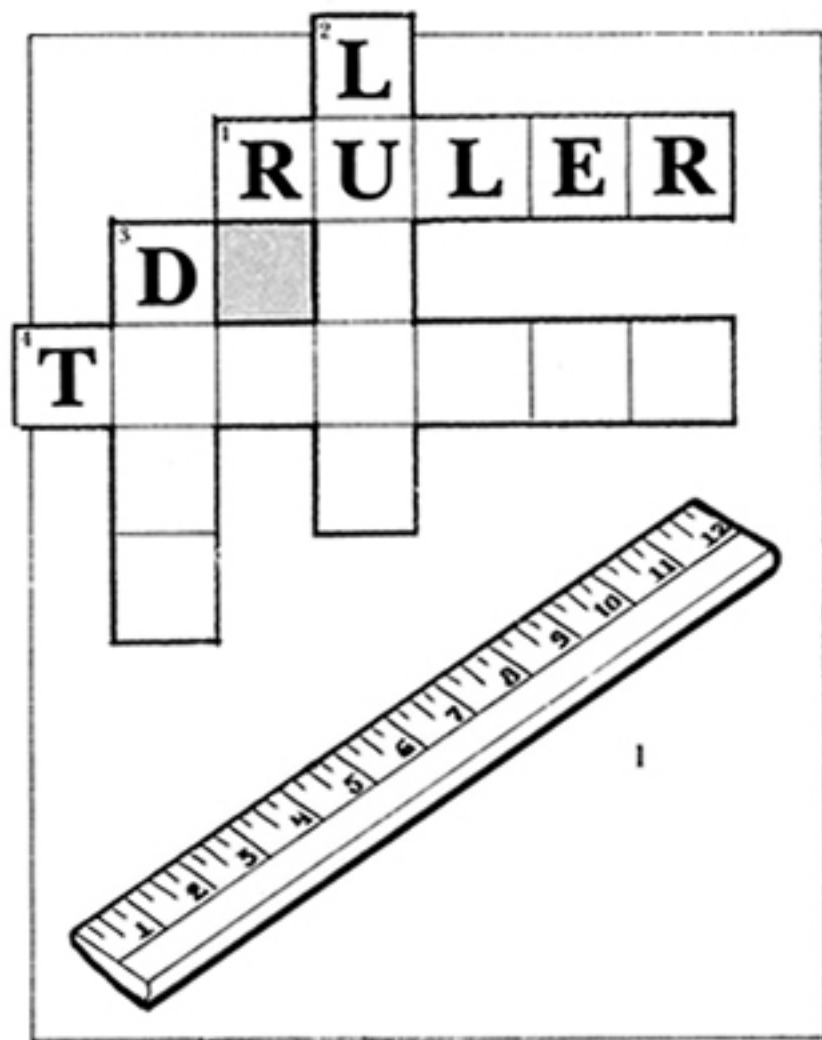

Some float below, some skim on top,
And some must swim before they hop!

Some go crawling on the ground,
Other creatures hop and bound.

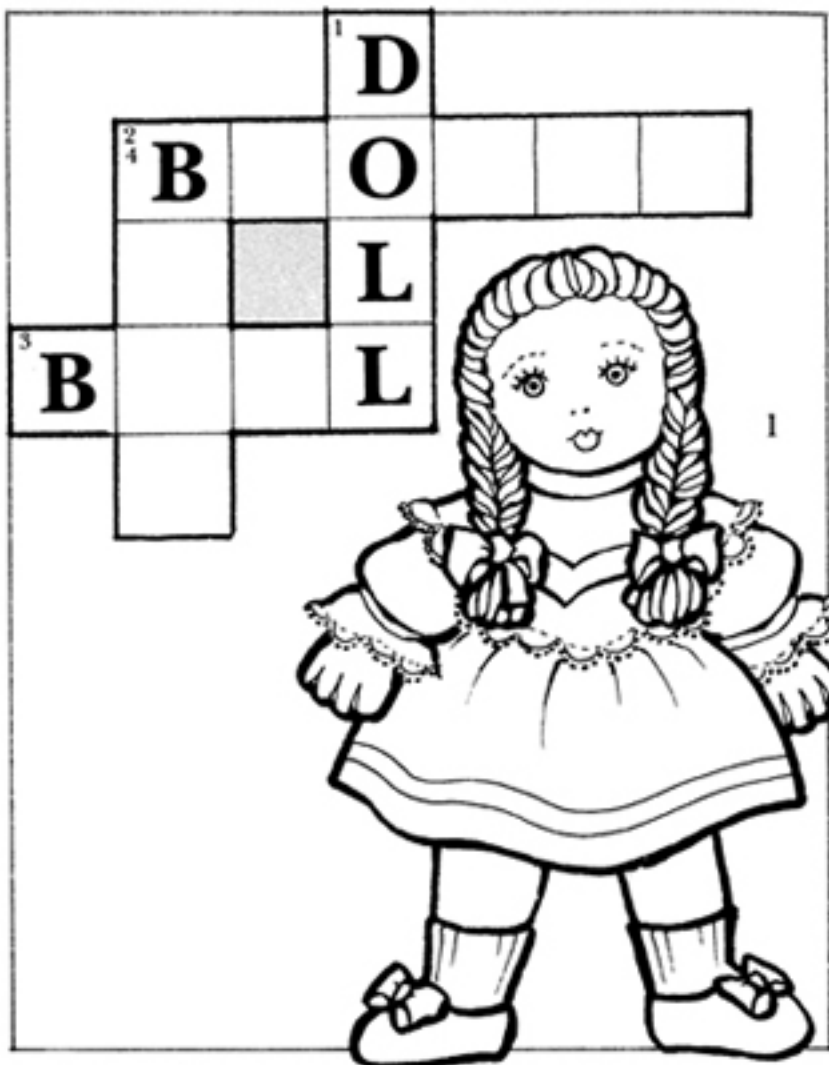

Some go swimming on the lake,
Stirring the flowers in their wake.

The number next to each picture tells you where the name belongs in the puzzle. The sled is number 1. It begins in the box with the circled number 1. Can you fill in the other words?

Connect the dots to see who's sitting on the rock.

The number next to each picture tells you where the name belongs in the puzzle. For example, the turtle is number 2 and fits where number 2 begins in the puzzle. Can you fill in the other words?

Flame azalea

These flowers are so brightly colored that they might seem like they're on fire.

Here are 5 things that children use to do their schoolwork. Can you name all 5 and write them in the puzzle?

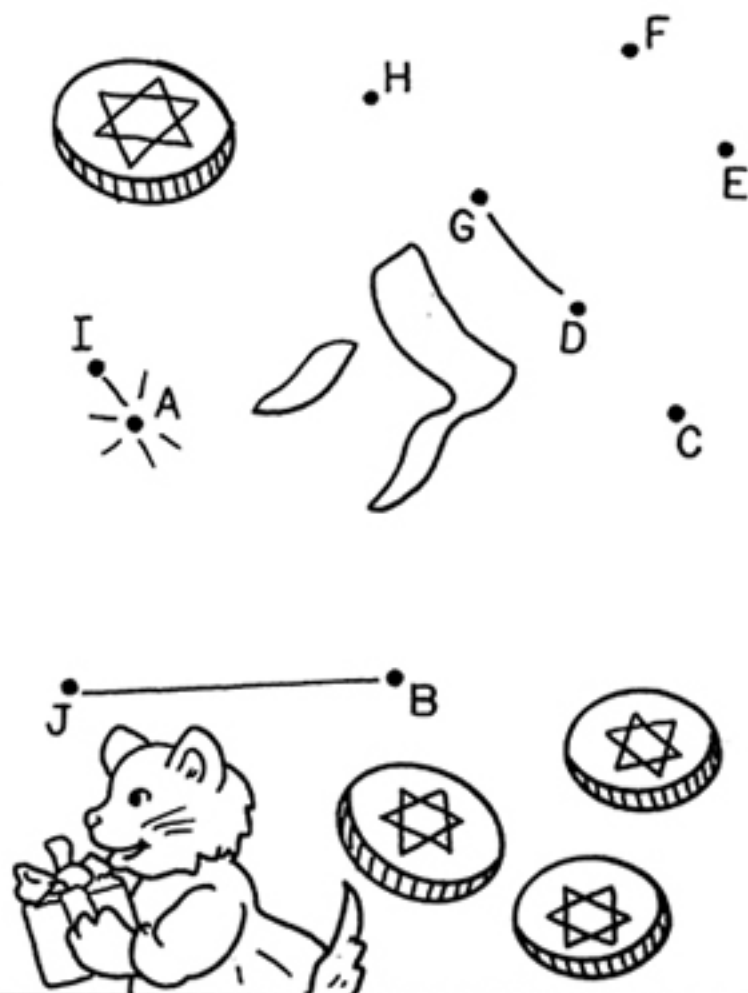

Chanukah (Hanukkah)

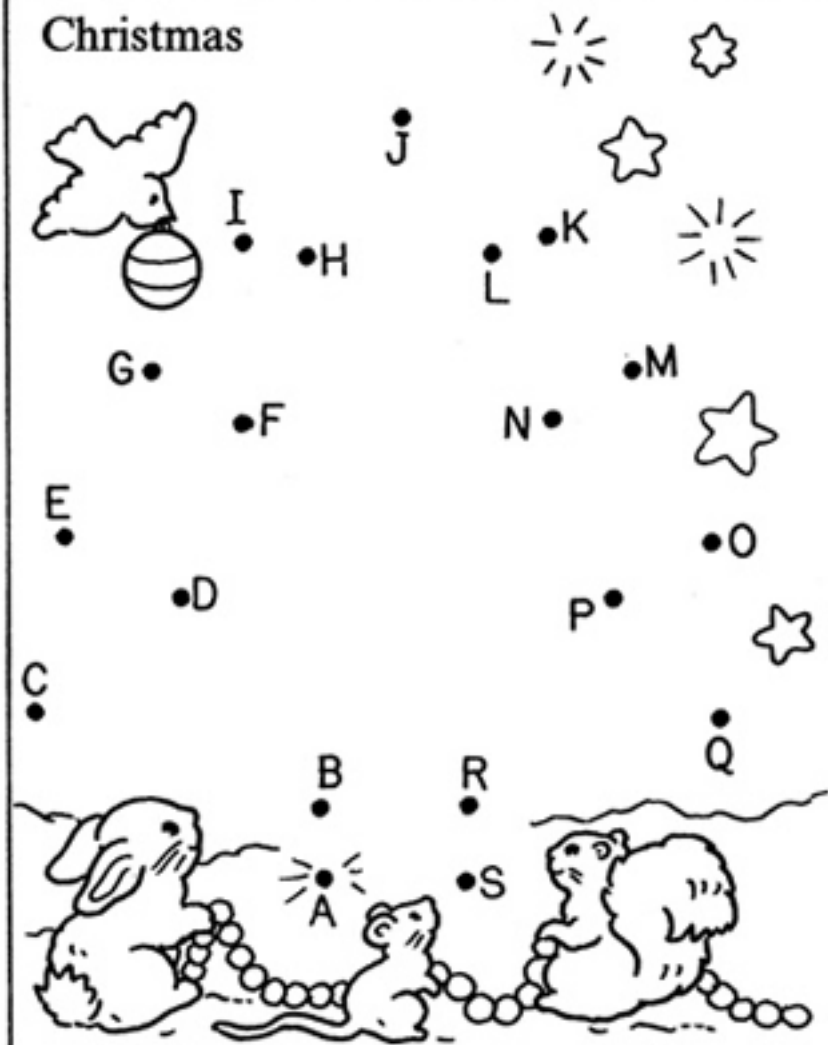

Late fall/winter

On each of eight nights, light one of these,
And place it in the menorah, please.

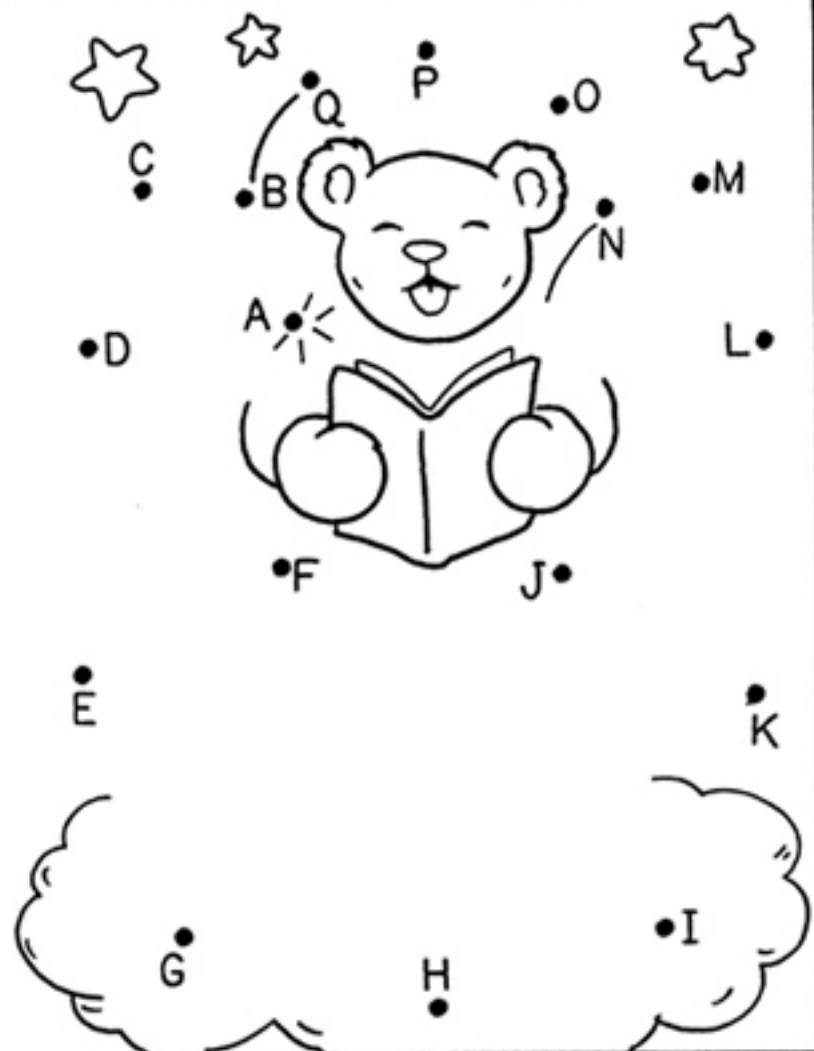

The children get gifts and give this a spin
As they play a game that they hope to win!

Christmas

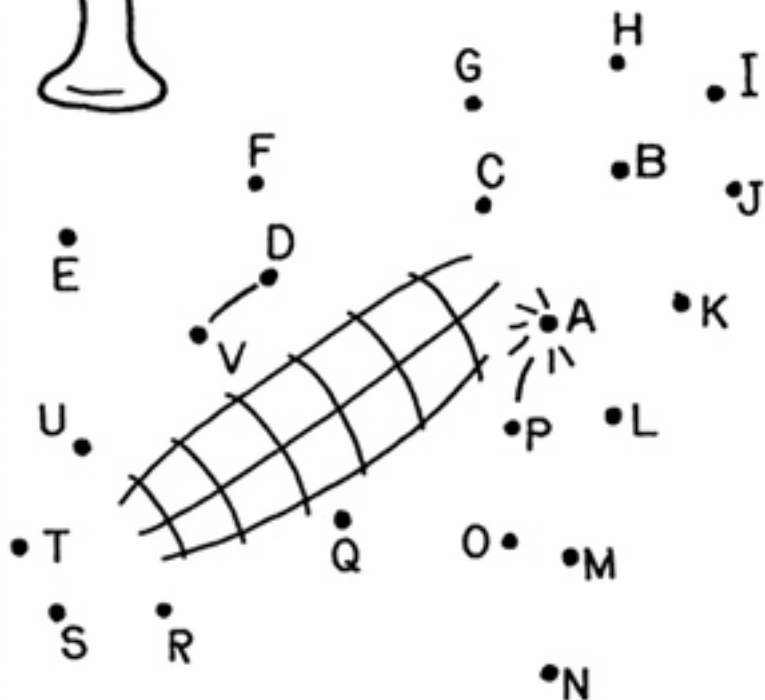

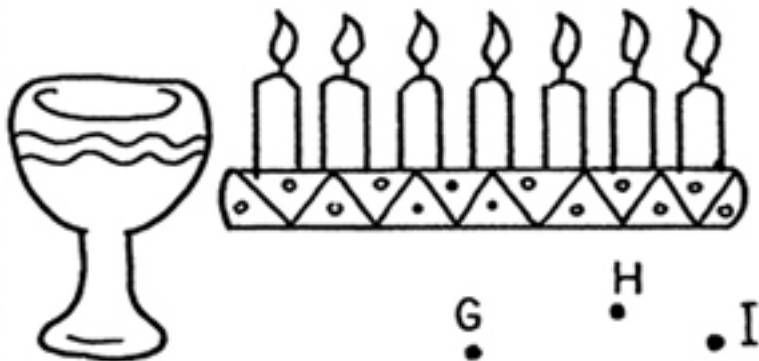

It's decorated every year
To lift the spirits and bring good cheer.

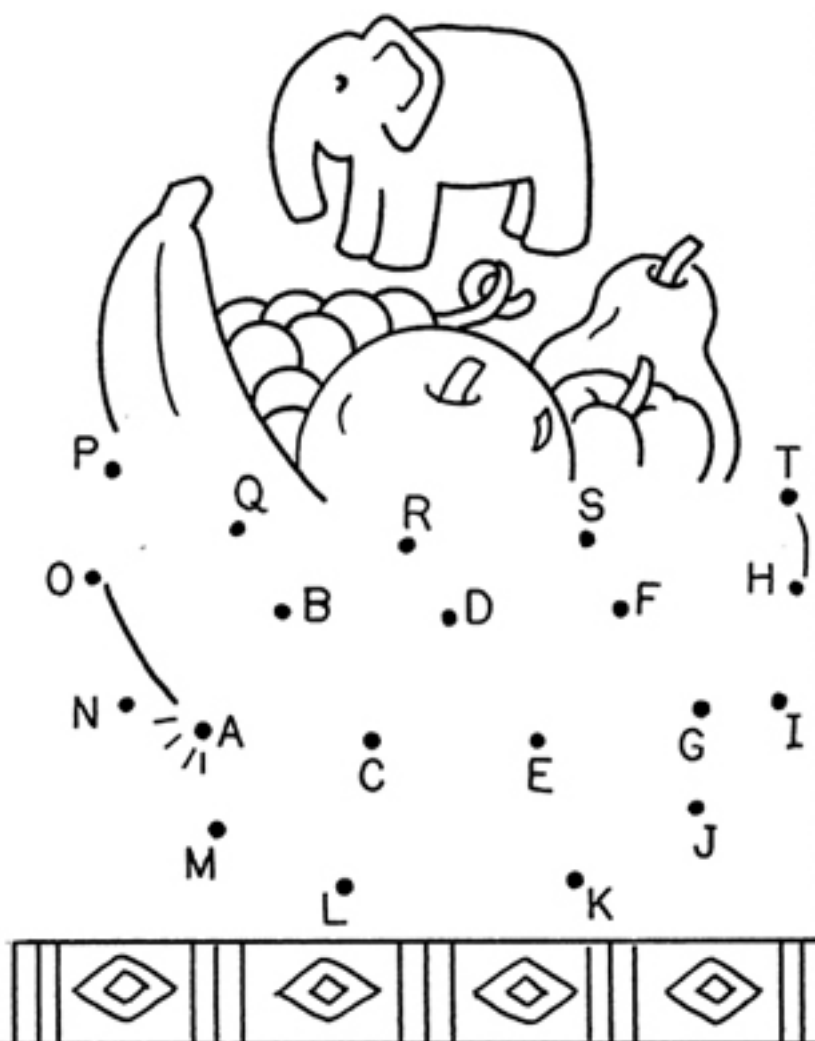

It sings so sweetly, for all who are near,
A Christmas carol—come and hear!

Kwanzaa

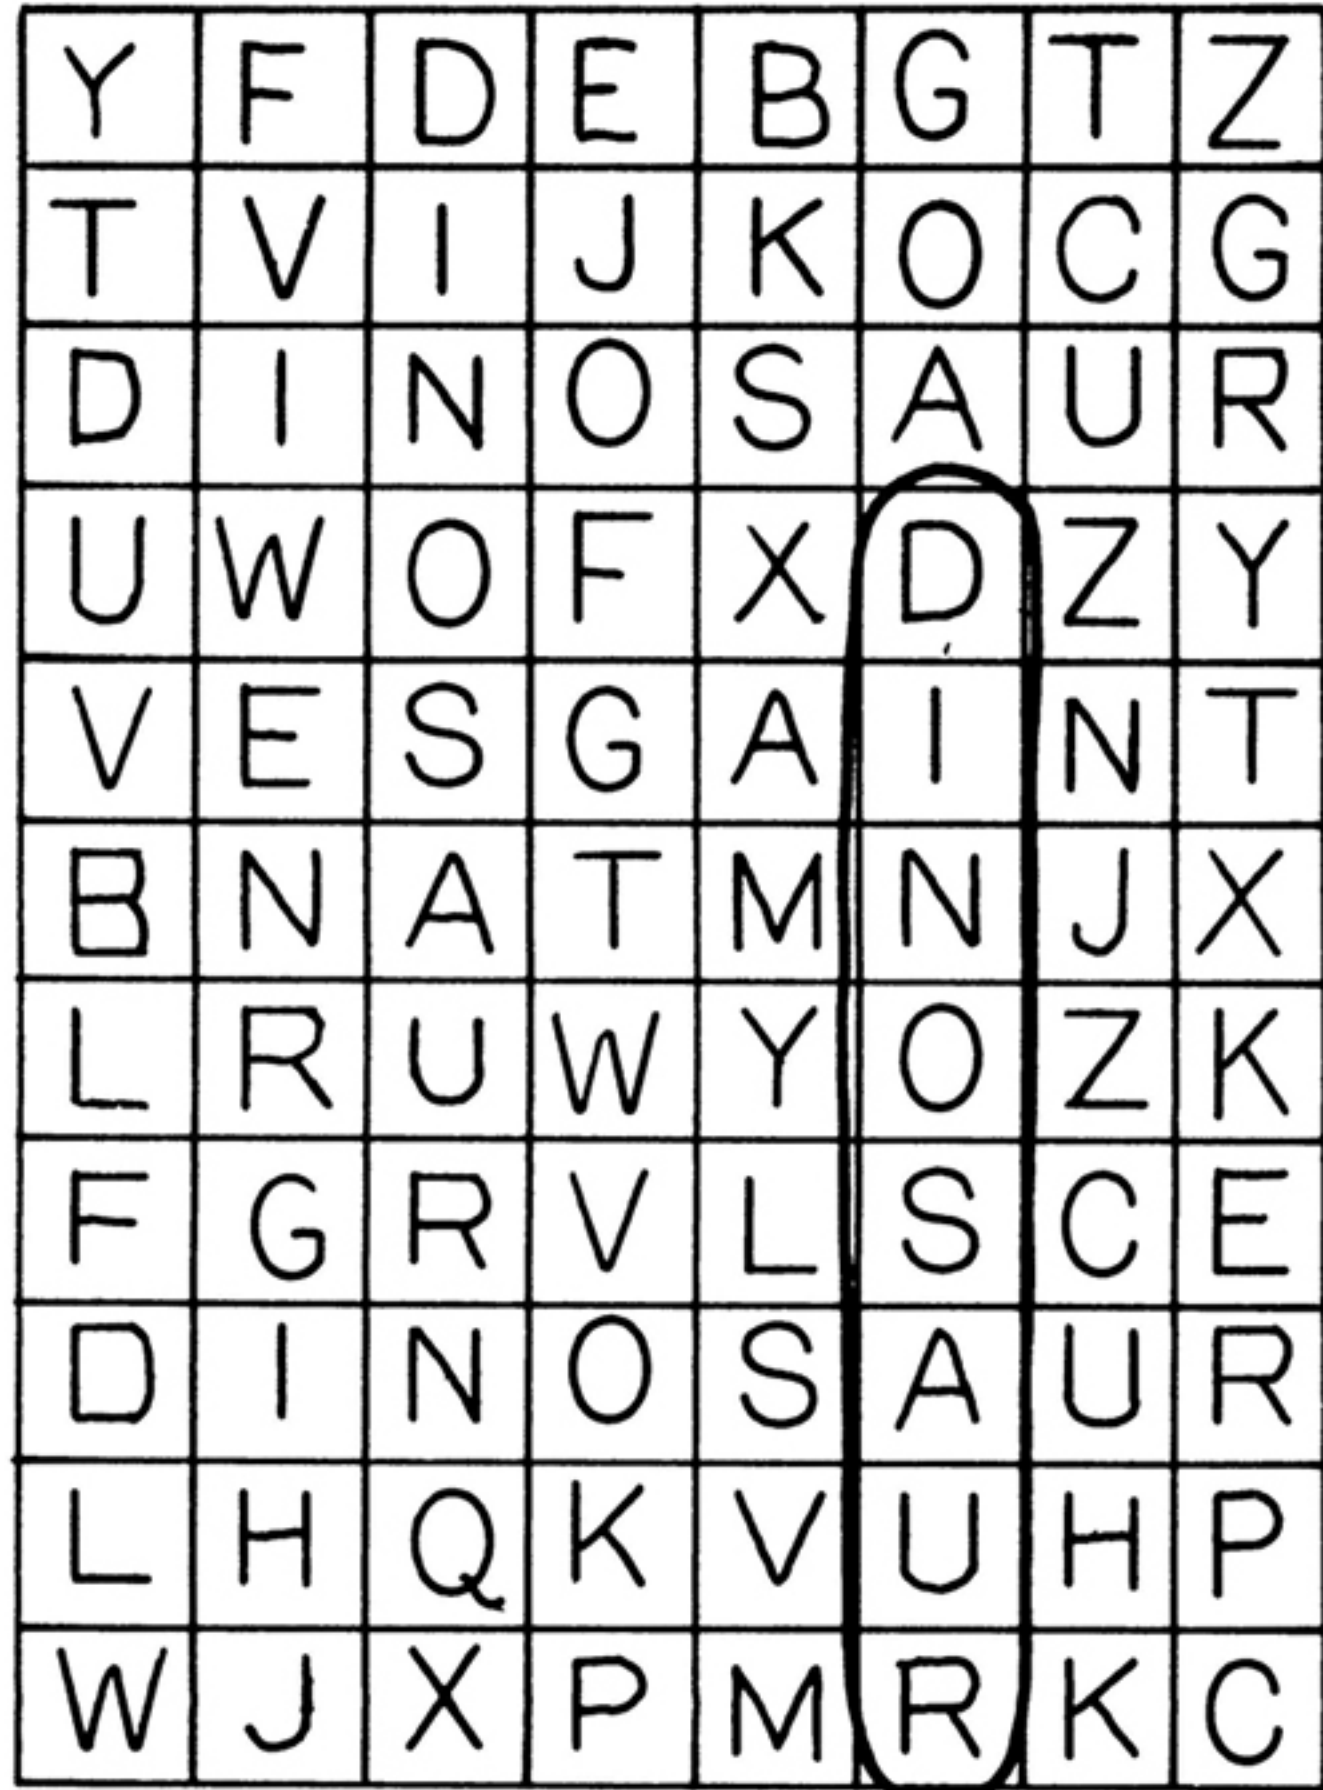

December 26-January 1

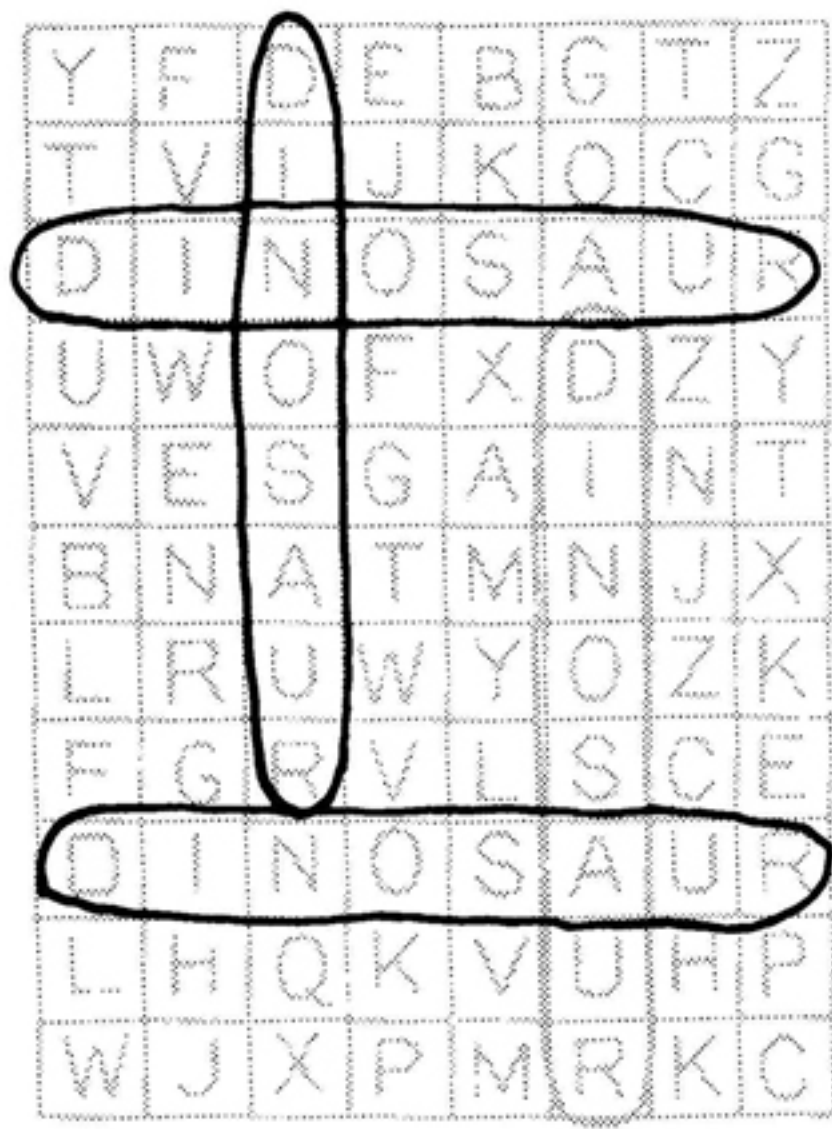

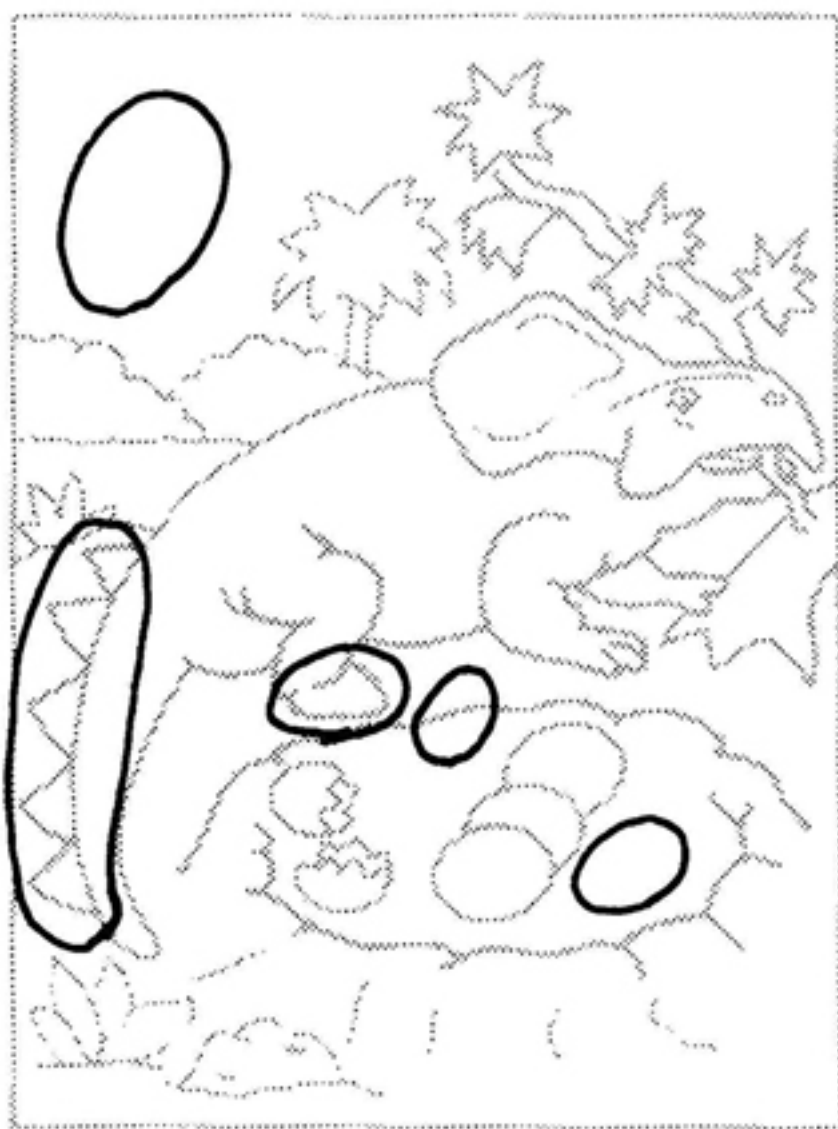

This "first fruit" stands for children, you know.
The pride of the family—watch them grow!

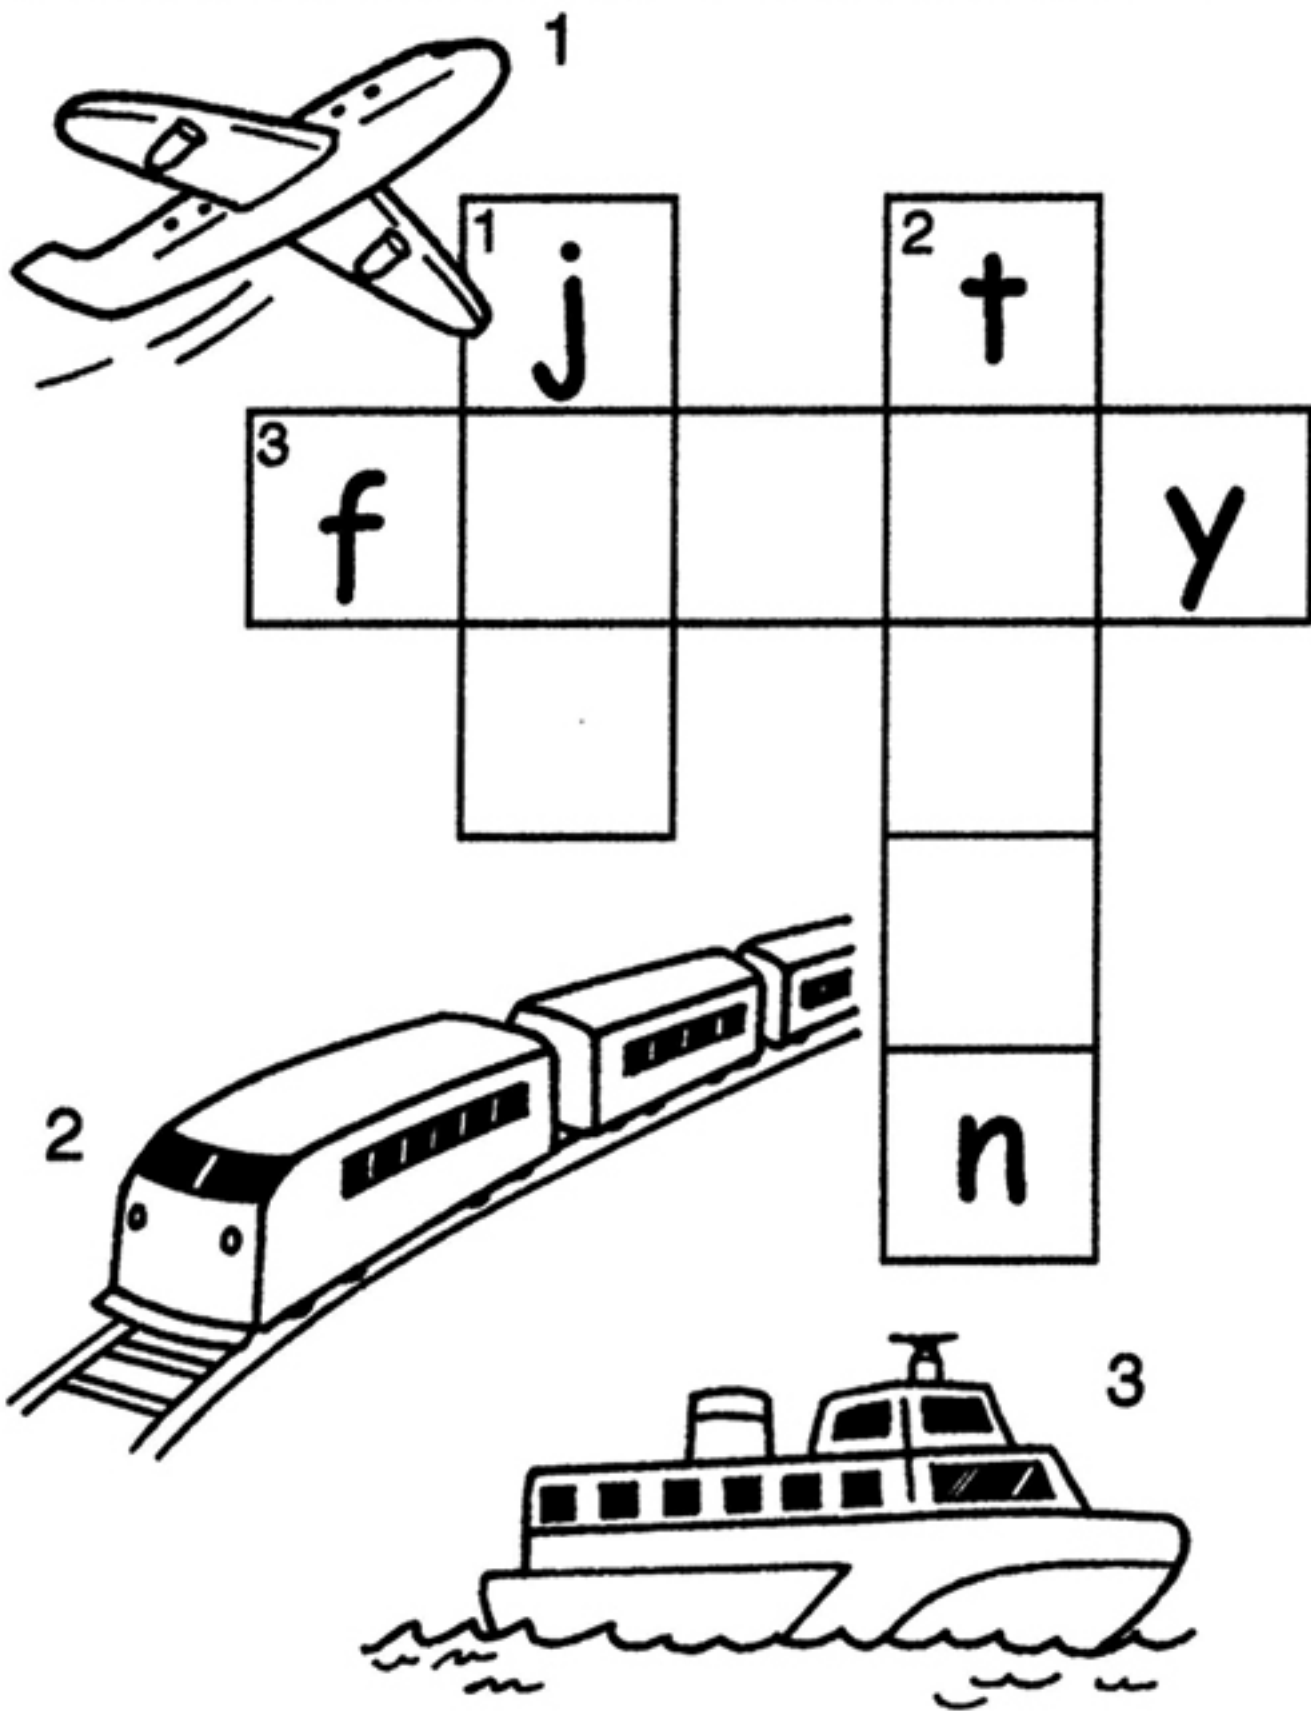

It stands for crops from the ancestors' land,
You can hold it proudly in your hand.

The word dinosaur is hidden up-and-down or left-to-right three more times in the puzzle above. When you find the word, draw a line around it.

Here are pictures of three different ways to travel.
Fill in the puzzle with their names.

Holiday Hunt

Below are some words that we often hear at Christmastime. See if you can find and circle them all in this letter grid. Look carefully—they are hidden vertically, horizontally, diagonally and backwards.

snow
carols bells elf

cookies
North Pole
mistletoe ornament

bows reindeer stocking present

Santa sleigh tree holly

Speedy Sleigh

Someone snapped two pictures of Santa's sleigh when it was all packed and ready to go. See if you can spot the five differences between the two pictures.
